Food

Italian food rivals French in the hearts and taste buds of many gastronomes and the regional cuisine, of which the locals are very proud, wonderfully reflects the climate and local produce. Delicious pizza, pasta and risotto dishes are present everywhere throughout Italy with local specialities and sauces. Birthplace of the most prestigious school of Italian cooking, the Piedmont region offers the most varied and refined cuisine of the peninsula. Try the traditional agnolotti (pasta folded over with a beef and vegetable filling), the many excellent cheeses (such as the prized Castelmango), locally produced honey, salami and cured meats, such as mortadella of the Ossola. Rice dishes are also very popular in this region, the most famous being Risotto alla Milanese (rice with saffron and white wine) and Paniscia (rice cooked with lard, onions, salami and seasonal vegetables).

Renowned for excellent pastry and chocolate, Piedmont's marron glace and gianduiotto are famous worldwide. Local specialities include Crescenzin (rye loaf stuffed with walnuts, figs and raisins) and Margheritine of Stresa (biscuits originally made in honour of Queen Margherita of Savoy). Strong Italian espresso coffee is served after the meal and will be black, in small cups, unless a cappuccino is requested.

Table service is common in most restaurants and bars. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, and no further tipping is required.

Drink

The world's largest wine producer, Italy is home to some of the oldest viticulture regions. The wines are named according to their grape variety or after their village or area of origin. Excellent wines are produced throughout Italy and Sicily, with local wines offering great value and quality. With some of the best known, noble, world-appreciated and prize-winning wines, you will be spoilt for choice in the Piedmont region. It is mainly red wines that represent the main grape variety (Nebbiolo) at its finest. Barolo, Barbaresco, Gattinara, Ghemme and Roero DOCs are excellent.

Apéritifs such as Campari and Punt e Mes are excellent appetisers, while Italian liqueurs include Grappa, Stregga, Galliano, Amaretto, Sambuca and Limoncello.

Meals included in the price of your holiday are:

Destination

Be captivated by the quiet beauty of this small, undiscovered lake – the water is a perfect blue, its little island mysterious, the mountain and lake scenery spectacular, the quaint lakeside villages quintessentially Italian. Enjoy charming boat trips on lakes Orta and Maggiore, take in the flavours and colours at Omegna's lively street market, and discover peaceful and fascinating religious sites.

Details of places of interest included in the tour:

Lake Orta & Orta San Giulio

One of Italy's least visited lakes, Lake Orta is unjustly ignored as it is one of the most beautiful, and delightfully set in the foothills of the Alps. Just 3.5km from your hotel, the lake's main town, Orta San Giulio, has a beautiful historic centre containing handsome palazzi and pretty houses with decorative wrought-iron balconies. In the main square is the town hall, a frescoed building dating from 1582 standing on arcades and a host of restaurants with outdoor terraces, perfect for a lovely, relaxed lunch. Elsewhere, visit the 15th century church of Santa Maria Assunta with a richly-decorated interior of 17th century frescoes and (energy permitting, as it sits high above the town) the amazing Sanctuary of Sacro Monte, that was built between 1591 to 1770 and contains 21 chapels in which a variety of scenes from the life of St Francis are depicted in life-size statuary. Another delight is the tiny island Isola San Giulio reached from the town by boat (leaving from the Piazza Motta, return fare approx. €3, not included and payable locally), with a pretty church containing a 12th century pulpit.

<http://www.orta.net/>

Omegna

Market day in the lake's other main town, Omegna, is a delight too and reached by boat which departs directly from the hotel. For a true slice of Italian life this excursion should not be missed. Omegna's centre is also very pleasant around the Piazza del Municipio where a bridge spans the River Nigoglia.

Lake Maggiore and Villa Taranto

A wonderfully scenic introduction to the area is a full day tour of one of the principal lakes of the region: the relaxing Lake Maggiore. With plenty of refreshment stops at delightful lakeside villages and spectacular lake and mountain views, you will be enchanted at every turn. Known as the 'Kew Gardens' of Lake Maggiore, is the beautiful Villa Taranto. The marvellous gardens were created by Captain Neil Mc Eacharn, where many thousands of plants were brought from the far corners of the world and acclimatized after long laborious efforts, which have been arranged with art in this beautiful setting, between the mountains and the lake.

Varallo

Nestled in the foothills of the Alps, Varallo is a small town on the confluence of two rivers – the Sesia and the Mastallone. Visit the 15th century church of Santa Maria delle Grazie that houses a superb collection of beautifully-restored frescoes depicting the life of Christ, painted in the early 16th century by local Gaudenzo Ferrari. The town also boasts an extraordinary religious community founded in the 15th century, Sacro Monte de Varallo, set high up at an altitude of 610m reached by a long staircase or cableway. One of the most famous pilgrimage sites in Piedmont, this lovely complex of buildings houses the 19th century Basilica dell'Assunta and a series of 50 chapels dotted around it representing the sacred sites of Jerusalem and filled with 800 life-sized religious statues dating back to the 15th century.

Monte Rosa & Macugnaga

The pretty mountain village of Macugnaga, founded in the 12th century by the Swiss Walser people, sits at the base of Monte Rosa, the second highest mountain in Western Europe, in both Italy and Switzerland, and is dramatically surrounded by a series of high peaks. Its location it is a quiet place makes it perfect to appreciate the wild and spectacular Alpine scenery of the area as well as its charming mountain architecture.

Stresa & the Borromean Islands

On the shores of the Lake Maggiore, the chic town of Stresa boasts a wealth of lovely villas, left behind by the aristocracy of Europe, who have chosen it as a holiday spot for centuries. The Borromean Islands, a group of three islands in the lake, easily reached from the quayside at Stresa, comprise Isola Bella, location of the splendid 17th century Palazzo Borromeo, Isola Madre, home to a beautiful botanical garden, and Isola dei Pescatori, the only inhabited island with its quaint and picturesque fishing village.

Tour manager

Your tour manager will be on hand throughout the tour to ensure that everything operated according to plan. If you have any problems or questions, please see him or her immediately – it is often possible to resolve complaints or problems very quickly on the spot, and do everything to help you enjoy your holiday.

The Basics

Climate – The weather around Lake Orta at this time of year is likely to be pleasant, but evenings can be quite cool and there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT +1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – Italian.

Religion – Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year's day (01 Jan); Epiphany (06 Jan); Easter Monday; Liberation day (25 Apr); Labour day (01 May); Republic day (02 Jun); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); All Saints' day (01 Nov); Immaculate conception (08 Dec); Christmas day (25 Dec); St Stephens day (26 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it's advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you'll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums – Department stores are open 08:30-19:30 Monday to Saturday. Most shops are closed between 12:30-15:30. Please note that some museums close on Mondays.

Although very common in tourist towns in Italy, please note that street vendors selling all kinds of designer knockoffs are illegal and could land you with a hefty fine. Care should also be taken when buying antiques since Italy is renowned for skilled imitators.

Clothes & Shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good flat/grip walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – The guarantee of free mobile phone roaming throughout the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway has ended. Check with your phone operator to find out about any roaming charges that might be applied after 1st January 2021. A new law means that you are protected from getting mobile data charges above £45 without you knowing. Once you reach £45, you need to opt in to spend more so that you can continue using the internet while you are abroad. Your phone operator will tell how you can do this.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one awards with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm.
