Dining

The standard of food in Greece is excellent and offers a remarkable variety of freshly prepared and very tasty dishes, many of which use locally grown products and locally produced olive oil. When eating out the Greeks nearly always eat 'mezedes' style. This means ordering several dishes, starters and/or main plates, whatever takes your fancy, to put in the middle of the table for all to share. It is a very sociable way to eat and a great way of tasting lots of different dishes! Do not be shy in the amount you order, or if you only find yourselves ordering starters – any combination is acceptable.

When ordering fish in Greece you will find the price on the menu relates to a cost per kilo. Don't be put off by this. You are expected to go into the kitchen, choose the fish you want and then it will be weighed in front of you so you know what you will pay.

Nearly all tavernas sell their own 'open' wine, known as village wine. It can be something of an acquired taste, but it usually goes very well with the local food. If you are unsure, you can always ask if you can try the wine before you agree to it. Prices of local 'village' wine are usually around 5 euros per half litre.

Other local drinks are ouzo, tsipouro, brandy/ cognac. Tsipouro is the local firewater! This is distilled from the residue of the grapes after making wine. You will probably find you come across this whether you want to or not, as it is often served, complimentary, at the end of a meal.

Meals included in the holiday.

Breakfast daily, two dinners and two lunches

Destination

This 'adventure' takes us to the surprising landscapes and natural beauties of northern Greece during a period when the colours of autumn should be painting the trees and when most tourists have already departed, so it will feel like we have places to ourselves. The places visited will provide a fantastic glimpse of the diversity and beauty offered in this region, not only in its spectacular scenery but also in its local tastes and its distinct culture.

Places and sites of interest included in the tour:

Thessaloniki

Thessaloniki is the second largest city of Greece and the most important centre of the region. Built near the sea, it is a modern metropolis bearing the marks of a stormy history and a cosmopolitan character, which give it a special beauty and charm.

For more information about Thessaloniki, visit: <https://www.lonelyplanet.com/greece/northern-greece/thessaloniki>

Meteora Monasteries

Meteora, a sensational rock formation in central Greece, hosts one of the largest and most precipitously built complexes of Eastern Orthodox monasteries, second in importance only to Mount Athos. The six (of an original twenty-four) monasteries that remain in existence today are built on immense natural pillars and hill-like rounded boulders that dominate the area. Meteora is located near the town of Kalambaka at the north-western edge of the Plain of Thessaly near the Pineios river and Pindus Mountains. The exact date of the establishment of the monasteries is unknown but by the late 11th and early 12th centuries, a rudimentary monastic state had formed and by the end of the 12th century, an ascetic community had flocked to Meteora.

For more information about Meteora, please visit: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Meteora>

Metsovo

This tree-shaded village retains a very traditional character, dotting the mountain side below Katara

Col in the Mountain Range of Pindos. Metsovo is full of life throughout the year with its natural surrounding beauties. This famous Vlach village, birthplace of well-known national benefactors (notably Tositsas and Averoff), who left Greece but never forgot their home helping to enhance the village by donating funds to make substantial improvements. Metsovo is a favourite destination for Greeks, especially in the winter months when snow arrives. The settlement's heart beats in the central square, where you can see a distinctive image of Metsovo: the elders, with their handlebar moustaches, usually sitting on the benches, occasionally in traditional costumes and holding long wooden crooks, chatting in Vlach, a Romance language with its roots in the Balkans. The Folklore Museum of Metsovo, also known as "Archontiko", one of the first works of the Baron Michael Tositsa Foundation has been operating since 1955. It is housed in the rebuilt Tositsa Mansion. The exhibits include everything that could exist in a mansion during the great economic prosperity of Metsovo but also displays objects that are a historical memory for the nation: collections of weapons and swords from the struggle of 1821, bronze and wooden cooking utensils, jewellery, clothing, decorative plates and silverware, gold-embroidered saddles, chests, agricultural tools, looms and ornate textiles.

Metsovo is also well-known for its smoked cheeses and its excellent wines, which are produced locally.

Ioannina

Ioannina, the capital of Epirus, spreads out around beautiful Lake Pamvotis. The natural environment, the climate and character of the town are defined by this stretch of water – the area's trademark. The lake, with its still waters and its small island, is a natural monument, around which the entire area lives and breathes. The strong cultural traditions of the town and the artistic and intellectual events which are organized throughout the year, give visitors the opportunity to get to know the roots of the intellectual life of Epirus. A walk through the city has the feel of a bygone era, full of secret places and legends. Wonderful buildings like the House Matei Hussein, the Ottoman Mosque of Veli Pasha and the entire historic centre of the town are unique attractions. Ioannina was always multicultural, dominated mainly by Christian, Islamic and Jewish influences. This coexistence of cultural influences is clearly evident in the historic city centre. The Stoa Louli arcade is one of the locations where the three communities worked together and prospered. The arcade was originally an inn and then became a mercantile exchange of great importance throughout the whole of Epirus.

For more information about Ioannina, please visit: <https://www.visitgreece.gr/mainland/epirus/ioannina/>

Ali Pasha's Island

One of the very few inhabited lake islands in Europe is in Greece. The island of Ioannina's Lake is the only inhabited island of its size in the world without a name. The verdant island of 200 square kilometres is home to more than 300 people. It is known for its traditional Epirus stone-built settlement and was the base of Ali Pasha of Janina, an Ottoman-Albanian ruler in the early 19th century, hence the 'nickname' for the island, Ali Pasha's Island. In its tiny heartland, there are seven Byzantine and post-Byzantine monasteries built close to each other, which made it an important place for monasticism in the past. This traditional monastic community is the third largest in the country after those in Mount Athos, Macedonia, and Meteora in Thessaly.

Corfu

Corfu Town, the capital of Corfu, is one of the most beautiful and elegant towns in Greece. It is the principal port of the island and one of the largest and most populated towns of the Ionian Islands. Built on a promontory, the town displays a unique architecture which is strongly influenced from the different dominations, such as the Venetians, the French and the English. Corfu Town retains many of its original buildings, including elegant mansions, superb palaces, French-style flowered squares and imposing fortresses. The old town lies on the northern side between the Esplanade Square and the new fortress. Ferries approaching the port of Corfu offer a magnificent view to this picturesque and beautiful town. The square of the Esplanade (also called Spianada) is the central square of the town and the largest square in the Balkans. It became a public square during the French occupation and was designed according to a French garden architecture, with many organised trees and flowerpots. It is surrounded by sumptuous buildings, imposing monuments and an old Venetian fortress which marks the beginning of the modern town.

For more information about Corfu, please visit: <https://www.greeka.com/ionian/corfu/villages/town/>

The Zagoria Villages

Zagorohoria means Zagoria Villages, which comprise 46 stone-built villages situated to the north and northwest of Ioannina. During the last decade, the region of Zagorohoria has become incredibly popular among Greeks, but it is a place that only foreigners 'in the know' visit. Its cultured people, stunning landscapes, cosy guesthouses, World Heritage-protected architecture, and wonderful rivers make it a unique destination.

Most of the villages consist of the same 'arhontika' style houses - stone mansions with walls and roofs made of grey slate, taken from the surrounding mountains - and winding cobbled streets. Dotted between the villages are graceful arched Turkish bridges made from stone, churches with painted interiors, kalderimi (old mule trails), and forests of beech, chestnut, and pine.

Tour Manager

Your Tour Manager will be on hand during the tour to ensure that everything operates according to plan. If you have any problems or questions, please see them immediately and they will do their utmost to resolve any issues.

Grading

This tour has been graded as Moderate: Walking between sites, lots of standing for viewing.

The Basics

The weather in Greece at this time of year is likely to be pleasant, but evenings, and sometimes the days, can be quite cool, particularly in shadow, and there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared. Layers are useful as is a light rain jacket and small umbrella.

Time – GMT +3 hours (Summertime Apr-Oct); GMT + 2 (Standard time Nov-Mar). This means Greece is always 2 hours ahead of the UK.

Language – Greek

Religion – Greek Orthodox

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are in most towns, as well as airports and other spots. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros other than bringing euros with you from the UK. You can use a UK debit card, using the same pin number you use in the UK, to withdrawn cash. The instructions are in English. Just look for signs on ATMs for Delta or Cirrus.

Banks open Monday to Friday 8am – 2pm.

Please Note: As the regions where we stay are quite remote, we cannot guarantee that cash machines will be readily available, so it is good to bring euros with you. ATM's will be available in Metsovo.

Credit cards – Greece is very much a cash society so credit cards are not always widely accepted, however, far more places are accepting these nowadays, but it is best to check first in restaurants and shops, if you wish to pay by card. Varying amounts of commission can be charged for credit card payments and you may like to check these with your credit card supplier before you travel. Hotels usually always accept credit cards.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink although you should check at the hotel if the bathroom water is safe to drink as it could be tank water rather than mains water. Bottled water is readily available to buy in all local shops and very reasonably priced.

Shopping - Most villages, however small, usually have at least one minimarket. The minimarkets usually open from early in the morning until late in the evening.

Stamps - In most places you can purchase stamps at the same time you purchase postcards. This is much easier than trying to find a post office!

Plumbing - Unless there is information to the contrary, please do not put toilet paper down the toilet. As you may know this is common practice in Greece due to the narrowness of the waste pipes. Please dispose of the paper in the bins provided, which will be regularly emptied by the hotel.

Telephones/mobiles – The guarantee of free mobile phone roaming throughout the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway has ended. Check with your phone operator to find out about any roaming charges that might be applied after 1st January 2021. A new law means that you are protected from getting mobile data charges above £45 without you knowing. Once you reach £45, you need to opt in to spend more so that you can continue using the internet while you are abroad. Your phone operator will tell how you can do this.

Tipping –To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that, when receiving a good service, one awards with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services.

Health

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager/guide if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor. There is normally a charge of about 60 Euros for calling out a doctor (or more, depending on the distance the doctor has to travel) and there is also a charge to visit a doctor.

Keep any receipts for insurance claims.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed, or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral re-hydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit for Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting – www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Sun Protection

Always ensure you take sufficient sun protection and moisturiser. A sun hat and sunglasses are also advisable.

Pharmacies

Pharmacies throughout Greece are generally well-stocked and have knowledgeable staff who, usually, will speak some English. Pharmacists will often be able to give advice and medicine for minor ailments. Pharmacies are open Monday to Friday but not on Saturdays.

Insurance

We strongly recommend that you take out an appropriate travel insurance policy when you travel abroad.

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC)

Before you travel, make sure you have got a valid UK Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) or travel insurance with health cover.

You may not have access to free emergency medical treatment and could be charged for your healthcare if you do not have an EHC or GHIC when visiting an EU country, or travel insurance with full healthcare cover when visiting Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein. If you have an EHC it will still be valid while it remains in date.

Your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) will be valid if you are travelling to an EU country.

For further information about the GHIC please visit:
