Food

Eating out in Spain can often be cheap, and meals substantial rather than gourmet. But the Basque Country is an exception to this – the region's capital on the Spanish side of the border, San Sebastián, has the highest concentration of Michelin-starred restaurants after Paris! An excellent way to sample Spanish food (and atmosphere) is to try tapas (known as pintxos in Basque Country), which are served at any time of day in local bars. These are small tasters or snacks, which range from cheese and olives to squid or meat delicacies. As most of Spain's coastal areas, Basque cuisine is dominated by seafood – freshly caught bacalao (salt cod), baby squid, anchovies, merluza (hake), sardines, besugo (sea bream), clams, crab, tuna, baby eels... Often served with a tomato, capsicum pepper, onion and the local Espelette pepper side (piperade), they are also prepared as a stew or soup, such as ttoro or the tuna-based marmitako.

But the lush, mountainous inland area also boasts excellent regional produce, including cured meats, sausages, chorizo, boudin, the excellent Jambon de Bayonne, cheeses, and delicious vegetables, such as peppers, beans, asparagus and artichokes.

Traditional sweets include Gâteau Basque (almond and crème pâtissière tart), cuajada (milk curd) served with honey and walnuts, macarons, and Touron (pâte d'amade or marzipan).

Coffee (café) is served black, in small cups, unless a café con leche is ordered.

Some restaurants will offer a set meal at a fixed – menú del día – at lunchtime, generally good value for money. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, but it is customary to leave small change if good service is provided.

Generally speaking, mealtimes in Spain are much later than in the UK. Lunch is normally taken between 1400 and 1600; dinner is very often eaten any time after 2100 or even 2200.

Drink

Spain is essentially a wine-drinking country, with sherry being one of the principal export products. Its English name is the anglicised version of the producing town Jerez, from which the wine was first shipped to England. Wine in the Basque country tends to be light, fresh, fruity, and white, an excellent accompaniment to the seafood of the region – the Txakoli DO white wines are young, light, and slightly sparkling. If you prefer a red, try the soft and fruity local Rioja Alavesa DO.

In elegant restaurants the wine list will be separate from the main menu, but in less opulent establishments will be printed on the back or along the side of the menú. The waiter will usually be glad to advise an appropriate choice. If in doubt, try the house wine (vino de la casa).

Well-known Spanish beers (cerveza) include San Miguel, Damm, Estrella Galicia and Cruzcampo. Spanish brandy is as different from French as Scotch whisky is from Irish. It is relatively cheap and pleasant. Brands include Carlos I, Osbourne and Fundador.

This tour is on a bed and breakfast basis and includes:

- First evening dinner in the hotel restaurant
- Christmas Eve dinner
- Christmas Day dinner

Destination

Home to the Basque people, their language, culture and traditions, Euskal Herria (the Basque name for their ancestral land) stretches along the rugged Atlantic coastline of Spain and over the western Pyrenees into France. Scenically varied but always spectacular, the wonderful mountain vistas, verdant forests and delightful coastal villages are a joy to explore, whilst being submerged in a rich history and unique vibrant culture.

Details of places of interest included in the tour:

San Sebastián

San Sebastian is a picturesque resort city with a beautiful location, sitting on the calm La Concha bay and backed by low, rolling hills. Best known for its wonderful beaches, the town itself is packed with fascinating sights, particularly in the charming Parte Vieja (Old Quarter), at the foot of the green Monte Urgull, where the cramped old streets remain buzzing and lively throughout the day and well into the night. The baroque 18th century Basilica de Santa-Maria, the 16th century gothic Iglesia de San Vincente and the lovely 19th century architecture of Centro, the shopping and commercial district, are the main must-sees.

Vitoria Gasteiz

A flourishing medieval wool and iron trade created the fascinating and elegant city of Vitoria Gasteiz, filling it with Renaissance palaces, beautiful churches and grey-gold stone mansions. The medieval core of the city is arranged over a small hill and is a wonderful place to wander and discover plazas, palacios and excellent Basque restaurants!

Today the resort is a haven for surfers, its seafront lined with grand old buildings, including the gorgeous 1930s Casino Municipal and the magnificent 19th century Hotel du Palais, one of Europe's grandest hotels. Other sights include the 19th century Russian Orthodox Church, the Musée de la Mer, housed in a magnificent Art Deco building and the Chapelle Impériale, built in 1864 for Empress Eugenia.

Saint-Jean-de-Luz

Saint-Jean-de-Luz, with its sheltered and sandy beaches and magnificent old town complete with half-timbered mansions, is one of the most popular and attractive resorts on France's Atlantic coast. Thanks to its natural harbour, the town has a strong seafaring history; the wealth this created is well displayed in the turreted Maison Louis XIV, where King Louis himself stayed in the build up to his wedding, and in the incredibly rich interior of the Église Saint-Jean-Baptiste, where the Sun King married Maria Theresa in 1660.

Built as a fortress to protect routes into Spain from the Pyrenees before becoming the capital of the fiercely independent state of Navarra, the compact Casco Antiguo (old town) is filled with quaint twisting stone lanes leading to beautiful parks, lovely churches and a magnificent citadel. Among this fascinating muddle of architecture from different eras, don't miss the emblematic 14th century cathedral of Santa Maria, the 17th century façade of the town hall, the 19th century Palace of Navarre, and the Plaza del Castillo, lined with delightful cafés.

The Basics

Climate – The weather in the Basque Country at this time of year is likely to be cold and there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – French, Spanish and Basque (Euskera).

Religion – Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year's Day (01 Jan); Epiphany (06 Jan); Good Friday; Easter Monday; Labour day (01 May); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); Spanish National holiday (12 Oct); All Saints' day (01 Nov); Spanish Constitution Day (06 Dec); Immaculate Conception (08 Dec); Christmas day (25 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it's advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink, although some complain it has a strange taste, so it is generally recommended to drink bottled water, readily available in supermarkets and shops.

Shops and museums – Shops are open Mon-Sat 1000-1400 and 1700-2000. Supermarkets and department stores tend to open 0930-2100/2200, and may open on Sundays in large cities. Please note that some museums close on Mondays.

Clothes & Shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good grip/flat walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – The guarantee of free mobile phone roaming throughout the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway has ended. Check with your phone operator to find out about any roaming charges you might get from 1 January 2021. A new law means that you're protected from getting mobile data charges above £45 without you knowing. Once you reach £45, you need to opt in to spend more so that you can continue using the internet while you're abroad. Your phone operator will tell how you can do this.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm. We would like to reiterate that tipping is an entirely optional payment and this information is given purely to answer any questions you may have about it.

Health

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

Hospital

Your tour manager/hotel reception will arrange hospital transport.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral re-hydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit For Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting – www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Inoculations

You should check with your own doctor and take their advice as to which inoculations are required for the country you are visiting, as only they know your medical history and recommendations are liable to change at short notice.

Insurance

We strongly recommend that you take out an appropriate travel insurance policy when you travel abroad.

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC)

Before you travel, make sure you've got a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or UK Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) or travel insurance with health cover.

You may not have access to free emergency medical treatment and could be charged for your healthcare if you do not have an EHIC or GHIC when visiting an EU country, or travel insurance with full healthcare cover when visiting Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein. If you have an EHIC it will still be valid while it remains in date. Your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) will be valid if you are travelling to an EU country.
