Food

There are few dishes that can be described as quintessentially Dutch, and those that do fall into this category are a far cry from the elaborate creations of French or Italian cuisine. Almost every large town, however, has a wide range of restaurants specialising in their own brands of international dishes. Indonesian cuisine, a result of the Dutch colonisation of the East Indies, with its use of spices and exotic ingredients, is particularly delicious.

A typical Dutch breakfast usually consists of several varieties of bread, thin slices of Dutch cheese, prepared meats and sausage, butter and hagelslag (chocolate sprinkles), or jam, often a boiled egg and a cup of coffee. For lunch, most common are Koffietafel (breads, various cold cuts, cheese and preserves with a side dish of omelette, cottage pie or salad and coffee) and broodjes (sandwiches), served in the ubiquitous sandwich bars – broodjeswinkels.

More substantial dishes are generally reserved by the Dutch themselves for the evening meal: erwtensoep (thick pea soup served with smoked sausage, cubes of bacon, pig's knuckle and brown or white bread), groentensoep (clear consommé with vegetables, vermicelli and meatballs), Stamppot (hearty, traditional mash-up of potatoes with endive, turnips or some other earthy vegetable, customarily accompanied by smoked sausage), klapstuk (an accompaniment of stewed lean beef) and boerenkool met rookworst (frost-crisped kale and potatoes served with smoked sausage).

Seafood dishes are often excellent, particularly in Amsterdam, and include gebakken zeetong (fried sole), lekkerbekjes (fried whiting), gerookte paling (smoked eel), royal imperial oysters, shrimps, mussels, and lobster. Lightly salted 'green' herring can be bought from street stalls (they are held by the tail and slipped down into the throat).

Favourite Dutch desserts include flensjes or pannekoeken (25 varieties of Dutch pancake), wafels met slagroom (waffles with whipped cream), Poffertje (small dough balls fried and dusted with sugar) and Stroopwafel (two thin layers of waffle filled with sweet sticky syrup – placed on top of a hot cup of tea or coffee, the caramel syrup melts deliciously).

Restaurants usually have table service. Bars and cafes generally have the same, though some are self-service. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, but it is customary to leave small change when paying a bill.

Drink

Dutch beer is excellent, with pilsener-style lagers the most popular. It is always served chilled, generally in small (slightly under half a pint) glasses. The most popular brand in Amsterdam is Amstel.

The local spirit, Jenever (Dutch gin), flavoured with juniper berries and served chilled, is usually taken straight and knocked back in a single go, but it is sometimes drunk with cola or vermouth. It comes in many varieties depending on the spices used. Favoured brands are Bols, Bokma, Claeryn and De Kuyper. Other excellent Dutch liqueurs include Curaçao, Parfait d'Amour, Triple Sec (similar to Cointreau) and Dutch-made versions of crème de menthe, apricot brandy and anisette.

Meals included in the price of your holiday are:

Breakfast – daily

Dinner – one dinner at the hotel on the first night

Destination

The atmospheric Dutch towns of Delft and Leiden provided much artistic inspiration for two of history's great painters: Vermeer and Rembrandt. Following in their footsteps, you will explore the towns where they were born, as well as visit world-class galleries including the refurbished Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam and the Mauritshuis in The Hague, which features Vermeer's Girl with a Pearl Earring, as well as admiring paintings by the old masters, enjoy provincial Dutch architecture and charming canals.

Places of interest included in the tour:

Delft

It isn't hard to see why Delft is one of the most popular attractions for visitors to the Netherlands – set on several beautiful tree-lined canals, the town is one of Holland's most beautiful and is a charming base for our tour. Birthplace and home to Vermeer, the town was featured in the film, "Girl with a Pearl Earring" inspired by the painting of the same name. Famed for its distinctive blue and white ceramics and tiles, Delft has a gorgeous centre – a jumble of old tiled houses, narrow streets, and lovely little bridges, though it is the feeling of the place that holds most of the appeal. Highlights here include the 14th century Nieuwe Church, the Town Hall, the Oude Delft Canal, Prinsenhof and 13th century Oude Church and Hippolytusbuurt canal, where florists display their wares.

The Hague & the Mauritshuis collection

Home to the Dutch government and Parliament, the Hague is a pleasant and spacious seaside town, with a multitude of squares, parks and more than 700 public gardens, that spreads over a vast area yet with a relatively small population, earning it the title of the "biggest village in Europe." Interspersed with elegant boulevards lined with mansions, it is a stately place with an air of being well kept and well moneyed.

The Hague is famous for its superb museums and entrance is included to the excellent Mauritshuis collection. After a painstaking restoration the Mauritshuis reopened on the 27th June 2014, as an enhanced new museum with its full collection restored to its rightful home including Rembrandt, Van Dyck, Rubens and Vermeer's 'Girl with a Pearl Earring' back on display after a worldwide tour. Other sights include the Groenmarkt main square, the Picture Gallery of William V, the Bredius Museum, Noordeinde Palace and St Jacobs Church. We also include entrance to the incredible Panorama Mesdag, the largest painting in the Netherlands at 120 metres long and 14 metres high.

Gouda

A typical Dutch country town with delightful old buildings surrounded by quiet canals, Gouda is famed for its cheese, available in jonge (young), belegen (mature) and oude (old) versions. Although it is a fairly small town, Gouda's Market square is the largest in the Netherlands, an echo of its days at the centre of the medieval cloth trade and is still host to a busy market. It is also a beautiful old town renowned for its Stadhuis which dates from 1450, the Stedelijk Museum housed in the 14th century St Catherine's Hospital and the church of St Janskerk, which is home to some of the world's best stained-glass windows.

Leiden

Home to one of Europe's most prestigious universities and the birthplace of Rembrandt, Leiden is a vibrant and appealing city with a number of exceptional museums. It's beautiful and historic old town, crisscrossed by ancient canals and full of lovely antique buildings, is best explored on foot. The Stedelijk Museum de Lakenhal, located in the old cloth merchants' hall, houses some 17th century Dutch paintings. Other highlights include the Rapenburg canal lined with fine houses, Van Oudheden Museum of Antiquities and the 17th century fish market.

Amsterdam, the Rijksmuseum & Rembrandt's House

One of Europe's great cities and the capital of The Netherlands, Amsterdam started life as a small fishing village and became one of the world's most important ports during the Dutch Golden Age. Wander the narrow atmospheric lanes and canals lined with 17th century merchant's houses and visit some of the many cultural and historic sites, such as the intensely moving Anne Frank's house, the Flower Market, the canals such as Herengracht and Singel and the lovely houseboats, Westerkerk Church and the Van Gogh Museum, that has some 100 of the artist's paintings on display as well as letters to his brother Theo.

Do not miss visiting two exceptional museums, included in the tour. The Rijksmuseum, reopened after renovation in 2013, is one of the world's finest art galleries with a large collection of Dutch works, particularly Rembrandts and several excellent Vermeers and a huge cache of sculptures and applied arts. The Rembrandt House Museum is based in the house where the artist lived and painted for 20 years before his eviction by creditors in 1659 and displays a number of his etchings.

Reading Suggestions

R. H. Fuchs, Dutch painting (World of Art).

An overview of Dutch painting from the Middle Ages to the 20th century, from Van Eycks to Hals, Rembrandt, Vermeer and Van Gogh.

Mariët Westermann, A Wordly Art. The Dutch Republic 1585-1718.

Placing the art and artists of the Dutch Golden Age in a political, social and historical context, this proves an interesting and informative read, as well as being filled with plenty of high quality colour illustrations.

Tour manager

Your tour manager will be on hand throughout the tour to ensure that everything operated according to plan. If you have any problems or questions, please see him or her immediately – it is often possible to resolve complaints or problems very quickly on the spot, and do everything to help you enjoy your holiday.

Grading

This tour has been graded as Demanding: On your feet all day, uneven terrain (e.g. cobbles).

The Basics

Climate – The weather in Delft at this time of year is likely to be similar to the UK. Evenings can be quite cool and there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – Dutch.

Religion – Roman Catholic (30%), Dutch Reformed Church (11%), Other or non (42%).

National holidays – New Year's day (01 Jan); Good Friday; Easter Monday; King's Day; Liberation Day (05 May); Ascension day; Whit Monday; Christmas day (25 Dec); Boxing Day (26 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it's advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 230 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you'll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums – Special purchases include Delft blue pottery, Gouda cheese and diamonds from Amsterdam.

Shops are open Mon 1100-1730, Tues-Fri 0930-1800 and Sat 0900-1700. In big cities, supermarkets are open from 0800-2000/2100. In large city centres, shops are open Sun 1200-1700. In many towns there is evening shopping till 2100 on Thursday or Friday.

Please note that some museums close on Mondays.

Clothes & Shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good grip/flat walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – The guarantee of free mobile phone roaming throughout the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway has ended. Check with your phone operator to find out about any roaming charges that might be applied after 1st January 2021. A new law means that you are protected from getting mobile data charges above £45 without you knowing. Once you reach £45, you need to opt in to spend more so that you can continue using the internet while you are abroad. Your phone operator will tell how you can do this.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm.
